Build the Next Generation of

ORACLE®

the world´s leading Database

Meet Developers from the World's Biggest Software Project

The new Oracle Advanced Development Center in Guadalajara will be developing the next version of Oracle Database. Projects will include technically challenging extensions in the areas of the Database Kernel, Clustering, OLAP, Gateways, XML Open Source Projects, as well as Monitoring and Management Tools.

Technical Presentation and Recruiting Session
Wednesday October 12th, 18:00 hrs
Instituto Politécnico- Centro de Investigación de Computación
Sala de Usos Múltiples

We are interviewing for
- o Hard Core Software Developers
- o Proven Ability to Solve Challenging Problems
- o Graduating in 2011 and 2012 (Bachelor, Master, PhD) or Professionals
- o Degrees in Computer Science and Engineering, Mathematics, or Physics
- o Fluent Written and Spoken English

University Contact: Ing. Jorge A. Gutiérrez C. Tel. 57 29 63 00 Ext. 58063
Facebook: Oracle Mexico Development Center
Interviews being scheduled, submit your resume to http://tinyurl.com/applymdc
Questions: erika.martos.ramirez@oracle.com or isabel.flores@oracle.com

Prizes will be distributed at the technical presentation including an Apple iPad.
CV must be submitted for entry (softcopy above or hardcopy at event)
Please make sure your CV includes the following information:
- Graduation Date

- Theses Topic
- Academic grade point average
- Elective courses taken
- All programming experience (including academic coursework)
- All relevant software projects executed